Dear Mr. Werner:

This letter will serve as an acknowledgment of your communications received from June, 2006, through July, 2007. The FBI has reviewed your letters and accompanying supporting documentation regarding allegations related to traffic.com.

Based on what you reported, the FBI contacted the Department of Transportation, Office of Inspector General (DOT/OIG). Together with DOT/OIG, we reviewed and discussed your allegations with the Washington, DC, United States Attorney's Office. No federal violation was identified.

Since the FBI has no authority to conduct an investigation in the absence of a clear federal violation, this matter is considered closed.

Sincerely yours,
